

Pawns Into The Center!

The chess champion Paul Morphy begins the game with white by moving the pawn in front of his king two squares forward, into the center of the board.

The Duke of Brunswick and Count Isouard with black do the same thing.