

All Pieces Are Active & Attacking!

After the Duke and Count took back the first white rook with their rook, Morphy moved the other white rook from the corner to the open file! Now all the white pieces are active and attacking the black king and pieces. The white bishop pins the black rook to the king, so the black rook can't take the white rook.